

LEGO

1. What does LEGO stand for?
2. What do the following terms mean? Element, Stud, Brick, Plate, Base Plate, Tile, Minifigure
3. What does Ephesians 4:32 say about playing together?
4. Do we need a foundation when building? Who is our foundation?
5. Think about some stories in the Bible that talk about building something. What was it that was built?
6. Using LEGO, build something from both categories:
 - a. Nature: such as flowers, animals, trees, etc.
 - b. Transportation: such as a car, boat, airplane, etc.
7. As a group, create a scene from a Bible story. Share your LEGO creation by telling the story in a club meeting.

Helps

1. LEGO is an abbreviation of the two Danish words: “leg godt,” meaning “play well.”
2. Element – Any item made by LEGO. For example: Bricks, plates, tiles, all minifigure parts and accessories.
Stud – The round connection point on top of a standard brick.
Brick – A standard plastic element. Usually 6 sided (including top and bottom) and ranging in widths and length.
Plate – A flat plastic element. One third the height of a brick element.
Base Plate – A flat plastic element with no attachment points on the bottom and thinner than a standard plate.
Tile – Similar to a plate however with no attachment points or studs on top.
Minifigure – Typically 4 elements that make up a LEGO person: 1. Hat, hair, helmet, etc.; 2. Head; 3. Torso, usually includes arms and hands; 4. Legs, usually includes waist.
3. “And be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving one another, just as God also forgave you in Christ” (Ephesians 4:32). We should be kind to each other while we play together. If someone is unkind to us, we need to forgive them just like Jesus would do.
4. Have children look up I Corinthians 3:11. “The foundation has already been built. No one can build any other foundation. The foundation that has already been laid is Jesus Christ” (1 Corinthians 3:11 ICB). A good foundation is essential for a solid build.
5. Noah (Genesis 6-7); Tower of Babel (Genesis 11:1-9); Abram’s tent (Genesis 12:1-8); Tabernacle in the desert (Exodus 25-27); Salomon’s temple (1 Chronicles 28:1-10, 2 Chronicles 3-5); the wise man and the foolish man (Luke 6:47-49); New Jerusalem (Revelation 21-22).
