
Mountain

1. Define the following terms:

a. Orology

b. Mountain

c. Mountain range

d. Magma

e. Volcano

2. Tell three ways mountains have been formed.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

3. Choose ten mountains, including two from near where you live and tell what each one's name is, what its height is, where it is located, and what mountain range (if any) it is a part of. Try to choose mountains from as many different countries as possible.

1. _____

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

7.

8.

9.

10.

- ❑ 4. Match each description to its correct answer:

Underwater mountain range that goes around the world	Aconcagua
Highest mountains of each continent	Mt. Everest
Highest mountain in South America	Himalaya
Tallest mountain on earth	Mt. Mayon
World's longest mountain range	Ocean Ridge
Highest mountain in Japan	Damavand
Highest volcano in Asia	Mt. McKinley
Indians call it Denali, "The Great One"	Seven Summits
Mountain known for its "perfect cone"	Andes
Range with the highest mountains on earth	Mt. Fuji

- ❑ 5. List at least four mountains mentioned in the Bible and tell what important events took place there.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____

- ❑ 6. Visit a mountain and tell about your experience in one of these ways:

- a. Tell someone a story about your visit
- b. Write a narrative story about your visit
- c. Make a video or multimedia presentaton about your visit
- d. Make a picture scrapbook about your visit (this may be a group project)

NOTE: If there is NOT a mountain in your state/province/region, you may watch a video about mountains. Then either:

- a. Summarize the video.
- b. Create a multimedia presentation about the video.
- c. Create a 3-D model of a mountain/volcano and demonstrate its eruption.

Date completed _____

7. Choose one of the following Bible verses about mountains and recite it:
a. Psalm 90:2

- b. Isaiah 52:7

- c. Isaiah 55:12

8. Create a game or activity based on the terminology and mountains that you learned about in this honor.

Date completed _____